The heart of Saint-Germain-des-Prés

From the moment you step through the door, two Bulle armchairs set the scene: the Bel Ami Bar is the ideal place to relax in Saint-Germain-des-Prés. Sitting comfortably on a couch or armchair, cast your eye over the large bookshelves filled with a selection of books from local publishing houses and miscellaneous objects. You could almost be sitting in a spacious Parisian apartment, home to a lover of the Arts and design. The glass wall bathes the area in natural light.

The Bel Ami Bar is home to superb and delicious original creations born from the know-how and the passion of the head barman. For lovers of non-alcoholic cocktails, the Bel Ami Bar offers creations made with fresh fruits with varied and surprising flavors.

A daily tapas menu, made with only fresh products & committed to fair trade, harmoniously complements the original offer of the Bel Ami Bar.
